

Our Ref: OPCC FOI 1204

Date: 16/04/2018

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Request - Reference No: 1204

REQUEST

Please supply any emails sent from the Police and Crime Commissioner for South Yorkshire in the whole of February 2018 and March 2018 (up to the 22nd of the month), to any senior officer at South Yorkshire police, which concerns the current policing of tree felling operations.

RESPONSE

In order to answer your request for information, I approached our Information Systems department to search the OPCC email system for emails from the Police and Crime Commissioner to any senior commanding officer at South Yorkshire Police. This search highlighted the attached list of emails.

You will see that the attached document has a number of redactions thereon. Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOI) states that, when refusing such information (because the information is exempt), to provide you the applicant with a notice which:

- a. states that fact,
- b. specifies the exemption in question and
- c. states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The following exemption applies to the disclosure of the information:

Section 40(2) Personal Information is engaged where email addresses have been redacted. This is an absolute exemption and therefore a Public Interest Test is not relevant.

If you are unhappy with the way your request for information has been handled, you can request an internal review by emailing this office.

If you remain dissatisfied with the handling of your request or complaint, you have a right to appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

The Information Commissioner's Office,
Wycliffe House,
Water Lane,
Wilmslow,

Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
Telephone: 08456 306060 or 01625 545745
